01 restitution in the amount of $24,442.76, provide access to financial information, maintain a single
02 checking account for all financial transactions, disclose information about any business interests,
03 disclose all assets and liabilities, participate in a mental health program, and participate in a home
04 confinement program with electronic monitoring for 90 days.

05 On August 6, 2004, defendant admitted violating the conditions of probation by failing to 06 comply with the conditions of his home confinement program.(Dkt. 22.) Defendant was 07 admonished and probation was continued. (Dkt. 24.)

08 On September 12, 2007, defendant admitted violating the conditions of probation by
09 gambling, failing to make restitution payments, failing to work regularly at a lawful occupation,
10 and failing to support his dependents. (Dkt. 28.) Defendant was sentenced to custody for one day
11 with credit for time served, and four years supervised release. (Dkt. 34.)

12 In an application dated May 5, 2008 (Dkt. 36), U.S. Probation Officer Jeffrey S. Robson
13 alleged the following violations of the conditions of supervised release:

14 1. Gambling on or about April 16 and 17, 2008, in violation of special condition #3.
15 Defendant was advised in full as to the charge and as to his constitutional rights.

16 Defendant admitted the alleged violation and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether 17 it occurred.

18 I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised release as alleged,
19 and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be 20 set before Judge Pechman.

01 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been released on the conditions
